

CHARLIE CRIST
GOVERNOR

FLORIDA TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE DAY

WHEREAS, the State of Florida recognizes the importance of effectively addressing trauma as we provide services to children, youth, adults, and their families; and

WHEREAS, we are resolved that, in Florida, trauma will be recognized and addressed by providing sensitive, responsive services that are designed to promote healing; and

WHEREAS, the principles of Trauma-Informed Care are utilized throughout the continuum of care; and

WHEREAS, I encourage Floridians to support the victims and survivors of trauma as they endeavor to face the future filled with greater hope and less fear;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Charlie Crist, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing November 1, 2010, as Florida Trauma-Informed Care Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capitol, this 22nd day of October, in the year two thousand ten.
